

Families and people who care for us	1)that families are important for children growing up because they can give love, security and stability.
	2)the characteristics of healthy family life, commitment to each other, including in times of difficulty, protection and care for children and other family members, the importance of spending time together and sharing each other's lives.
	3)that others' families, either in school or in the wider world, sometimes look different from their family, but that they should respect those differences and know that other children's families are also characterised by love and care.
	6)how to recognise if family relationships are making them feel unhappy or unsafe, and how to seek help or advice from others if needed.
Respectful Relationships	6)about different types of bullying (including cyberbullying), the impact of bullying, responsibilities of bystanders (primarily reporting bullying to an adult) and how to get help
Online Relationships	2)that the same principles apply to online relationships as to face-toface relationships, including the importance of respect for others online including when we are anonymous.
	3)the rules and principles for keeping safe online, how to recognise risks, harmful content and contact, and how to report them.
	4)how to critically consider their online friendships and sources of information including awareness of the risks associated with people they have never met.
Being Safe	4)how to respond safely and appropriately to adults they may encounter (in all contexts, including online) whom they do not know.
	5)how to recognise and report feelings of being unsafe or feeling bad about any adult.
	6)how to ask for advice or help for themselves or others, and to keep trying until they are heard.
	7)how to report concerns or abuse, and the vocabulary and confidence needed to do so
	8)where to get advice e.g. family, school and/or other sources

My needs

What is special about a family?

What does a baby need?

What are my needs?

Who helps us and how do they help?

How can I care for animals?

How can I help the planet?

Why do people have jobs?

Why do we use the internet?

How can we stay safe online?

community online

Charity

protect strength

unique

Environment

risk safe

recycle job

career